

Detail of Project

PPP study on WTP in Da Nang, Vietnam in 2013-2014

Project	Preparatory Survey for Da Nang City Hoa Lien Water Supply Project (PPP infrastructure Project)
Location	Da Nang (Vietnam)
Duration	June, 2013- September, 2014
Funding Agency	Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)
Client	Da Nang Water Supply Company (DAWACO)
JV	Kajima, Hitachi, Yokohamawater, Original Engineering Consultants, GWRA

Da Nang City is located in the origin of the East-West Economic Corridor, expected evolution in the future, and also the center city of economy in central Vietnam. Currently, stable water supply that can meet the demands associated with urbanization and rapid economic growth, population growth has become an issue.

This survey project is intended for, such as the new water treatment plant with the aim of expansion of water supply capacity, to examine the feasibility of the business by Public-Private Partnership.

Meeting with Da Nang City

Water Resources (Kude River)

Planned Site of WTP